

David J. Syner, Recipient of the 2008 Providence College Mal Brown Award

Thursday, March 27th was a special evening at the Smith Center for the Arts, complete with a surprise special guest. Providence Mayor David Cicilline was one of over 170 people gathered to celebrate the accomplishments of five award recipients. The occasion was the annual Mal Brown Awards Reception hosted by the Greater Providence Chapter of the Providence College Alumni Association “Mal Brown Club”.

David J. Syner, C.P.A. `71; The Mal Brown Award, the organization’s highest accolade...given to alumni whose lives have exemplified the love and loyalty for Providence College that was characteristic of Mal Brown.

Award Photo left to right: Sarah Botham `97 (daughter), Dave Syner `71 and Catherine Shaghalian (daughter).

